SKIPPED WITH CLUB FUNDS. Clerk of the Athletic Club Shakes Omaha Realty from His Heels.

William Hillman, late house clerk of the Omaha Athletic club, is a defaulter and has absconded with the funds in his possession. From all accounts it is learned that Hillman left the city on Sunday last with all the money he could scrape together. When the club house was opened Monday morning Hillman did not appear, but nothing was thought of the matter, as the clerk frequently spent Mondays in collecting and paying bills.

What caused the first suspicion was the appearance of a deputy sheriff from St. Paul with papers for the arrest of Hillman charge of forgery and embezzlement. When this fact was reported to the directors they set to work overhauling the books, but as the accounts were in such bad shape it was hard to tell at the time just how much money the club was out. Only the day before, the directors had met and had passed a number of bills and had piaced the money in the hands of the clerk. One of the employes of the house is out $125. All the dues collected during the past two months went with the absconding clerk. Altogether the total sum will probably reach $400 or $500.

Hillman was first employed by the club some ten months ago. When the board of directors changed he was made house clerk, and to all appearances he was keeping the records in good shape. President Tuttle of the athletic club was asked about Hillman's connection with the club and said: "We heard several stories about the man and began to look them up.

We had a man who kept watching him and I do not believe he got away with any of the funds of the club. He had been collecting dues and since his discharge we have employed a collector who has visited many of the members of the club this week and so far we are unable to find that Hillman failed to account for any of our funds."
"He was discharged for incompetency and we expect to hire a new secretary shortly One thing Hillman did was that he brought several different women to the club several different women to the club and introduced each of them all as his wife. I do not know anything about the man being wanted in Minnesota. I don't think the

Will Prosecute Brandon. Belle Brandon was brought up from her solitary cell yesterday to answer for shooting at "Dude" Gibson while confined in the city jail. Both women were sober, for a wonder, and were able to talk intelligently. Assistant County Attorney Slabaugh had a talk with the Gibson woman and decided that he could not file a complaint charging the Brandon woman with shooting with intent to kill because "Dude" Gibson said that the pistol was not pointed to ward her, but toward the ceiling.

The decision of Mr. Slabaugh settled the matter as far as the state was concerned, but City Prosecutor Cochran didn't propose to let such a woman as Brandon is get away without some punishment, as was shown later by the filing of two complaints against her. The first is for carrying concealed weapons and it is more than likely she will get the limit on this charge. The other complaint alleges that Belle Brandon keeps a disorderly house and also maintains a house of ill fame. Both complaints will be pushed by the prosecutor. Said Mr. Cochran in speaking about the case: "We have had so much trouble with this woman that I have decided to stop all this nuisance by closing the house. It is a disgrace to the town and I now propose to prosecute her under the state law and rid the city of one of its most disgraceful resorts."

Plies of people have pues, but Do Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them.

Wheels in His Garret. "William January" was the name given by smooth-faced young man to the judge yesterday morning as he came to a halt before the judicial desk and started in to tell why he had been arrested. "I was only sitting on the grass, your henor, when a fellow came along and brought me here." William's intellect is impaired and he dou't even know where he came from or what he has been doing lately. He will be sent before the insanity commission.

STATEMENT OF ASSETS EXAGGERATED

SENSATIONAL

Directors of the Defunct Capital National

Requested to Explain.

Depositors Would Like to Have Them Make Good Their Losses-Were Very Ignorant of the Institution's Condition.

LINCOLN, June 23 .- [Special to THE BEE.] -

Two sensational petitions were filed in district court today against C. W. Mosher, R. C. Outcalt, R. O. Phillips, C. E. Yates, D. E. Thompson, H. J. Walsh, E. P. Hamer and A. P. S. Stuart, directors of the broken bank. The petitioners were A. M. Davis and Julia Caldwell, who have deposits of $5,648.06 and $2,000 respectively in the broken institution. They allege that the defendants as lirectors had entire control and management of the bank, and that it was their duty for the information of the public, and especially for the information of the customers of the bank to make and publish a true and correct statement of the resources and liabilities of the bank from time to time as the same might be called for. That they did so issue statements, but that those made March 7, May 17, July 12, September 30 and Decem-ber 9, 1892, were false and untrue, and by each of the defendants known to be so, in that the resources of the bank were in each case grossly exaggrated. The March estatecase grossly exaggerated. The March statement was signed by C. W. Mosher, A. P. S. Stuart and C. E. Ystes as directors; that of April by the same parties; that of July by Mosher, Yates and R. O. Phillips; that of September by Hamer, Stuart and Phillips, and that of December by Mosher, Yates and Phillips.

Phillips.

The plaintiffs say the liabilities of the bank at the several dates named were very much larger than shown by the statements and that the items of resources and habilities were false and untrue, and while said that the several showed the bank to be solvent. statements showed the bank to be solvent and in good condition, it was in fact insol-vent and if true, full and correct statements had been made at such times they would have shown the bank to have been insolvent at each and all of those times.

Directors Knew of It.

The plaintiffs further allege that each and all of the defendants either had full knowledge of the facts set forth or willfully and negligently failed to examine the books, papers and business of the bank as from time to time they were bound to do as directors thereof, and defendants held the bank out to the community as solvent and in good condition.

condition.
The plaintiffs further say that the defendants neglected and falled to per-form the duties of their trust as direc-tors of said bank and falled to examine the defendants neglected and falled to kind, amount and character of the loans made by the bank, as they were in duty bound to do, and that they entirely failed and neglected to give the attention and care to the management of the affairs of the bank that they were in duty bound to give thereto. Neglected Their Trust.

The plaintiffs further say that they were personally acquainted with all of the de-fendants and know that they had the repu-tation of exercising prudence, care and cau-tion in their own business affairs, and rely-ing upon their exercising similar care in the bank's affairs and upon the published state ments mentioned, and believing in the con-dition of the bank as shown thereby, deposited their money in the above named amounts in the bank, or loaned it, taking as evidence of such loans certificates of de-posits therefor. They say that they were induced to make the loans by facts cited, and would not have loaned the money had the defendants caused the publication of accurate and truthful reports concerning the condition of the bank.

They say further that the defendants either had full knowledge of the facts or willfully and negligently failed to examine the books, papers and business of the bank as from time to time they were bound to do as directors thereof, but held such bank out to the community as solvent and in good conlition; but they failed to perform the duties of their trust as directors; that Mosher and Outcalt well knew the true condition of slightest attention to the matter and per-formed their duties as trustees of the fund entrusted to them by customers of the bank, would also have known, if they did not know in fact, that the bank was unable to meet its obligations; that they permitted the bank to continue business long after it had become hopelessly insolvent.

Worth Fifty Thousand.

L. B. Treeman and C. W. Spears have made the following appraisement of lots and lands in the cases brought by O. N. Humph-rey and R. M. Turner against the directors of the Capital National bank, which were attached by the sheriff: Lot 28 and east half of lot 27, block 6, Lincoln Driving park, first subdivision, S street between Twentieth and Twenty-first, $400; lot 9, block 22, Lavender's addition, N street between Eighteenth and Nineteenth, $4,000; lots 7, 8 and west half of 9, block 95, the Mosher res-idence at Fifteenth and K streets, $25,000; lots 11 and 12, block 190, the Outcalt residence at Fleventh and D streets, $12,000; northwest quarter of section 24-9-6, $10,000 total, $51,400. State Printing Board in Session.

The State Printing Board, comprising Auditor Moore, Treasurer Bartley and Secretary of State Allen, met this afternoon, and opened bids on state printing for the next two years. There was some little surprise evinced by the majority of the printing houses when it was discovered that the specifications had been changed from the previous ones, and that there would be a perceptible increase of several thousand delperceptible increase of several thousand dol-lars to the state. In cases where before the commonest kind of flat paper had been called commonest kind of flat paper had been called for this time engine-sized paper was called for. Engine-sized paper costs from 5 to 7 cents a pound more than ordinary flat. Another change was that in blank books ordinary ledger paper was used before, but this time Weston's high-grade ledger was specifically stated. Consumers of Weston paper must pay some 40 per cent for the name, but the African in the woodpile, as pointed out by some of the bidders, is that the Journal company is the Weston comthe Journal company is the Westen com-pany's agent, and could underbid any other company some 25 per cent, from that point of vantage. The bids on all the leading items except on miscellaneous blanks were copies of the Newberry bill, and the Lincoln Printing company submitted a bid of $40 for the same work. H. D. Hathaway pro-tested that the call for bids on session laws included the Newberry bill, and that a separate bid on that particular part of the session laws was not permissible. He intimates that he would most seriously object to the letting of the contract for the session laws except upon the complete bids Mr. North declared that he would certainly enjoin the state board from awarding the session laws to the State Journal company. The board put in State Journal company. The board put in all the afternoon tabulating the bids on miscellaneous blanks, and will not finish until tomorrow. It is claimed that the bids are only about half as high as the bids submitted by the combine some weeks since.
